

Ryan Lambert

FIRST FRUITS OF ZION

Director of Outreach

Ryan grew up in a Reform Jewish home in the Baltimore-Washington metropolitan area. In college, he came to believe that Jesus is the Jewish Messiah and his life has never been the same since.

Early on as a follower of Jesus, Ryan developed a passion to help Jews and Christians to understand the Jewish roots of Christianity. After graduating from Winthrop University, he went on to get his master's Degree from Liberty University Seminary. Ryan has received ordination as both a pastor and as a Messianic Jewish Rabbi.

Over the years, Ryan has served in the church and the Messianic Jewish movement in various roles. He has planted congregations, spoken in hundreds of churches, led trips to Israel, and has served as a personal assistant to Dr. Michael Brown (author of Answering Jewish Objections to Jesus). In addition to Ryan's work with First Fruits of Zion, he also serves as the Messianic Rabbi at Tikvat David Messianic Synagogue in Roswell, Georgia.

As the Director of Outreach, Ryan's role is to connect with pastors and leaders so that First Fruits of Zion can better serve the church and the Messianic Jewish movement in the area of Messianic Judaism and the Jewish roots of the faith.

Ryan and his wife Jeanne live in metro Atlanta. They have six children. You are welcome to contact Ryan at ryan.lambert@ffoz.org.
